Parent Governors

BEING A PARENT GOVERNOR

- Have you ever considered becoming a parent governor?
- Have you ever wondered how parent governors are elected and what they do?
- Do you wish to be involved in decisions affecting the education of children in your child's school?

If so, then please read on.

CAN ANYBODY BE A PARENT GOVERNOR?

Yes, with very few exceptions.

No formal qualifications are required, but you must have a child who is a registered pupil at the school in any year group.

Being a school governor is challenging, stimulating, interesting, and, in today's rapidly changing educational world, vitally important.

Spending time getting to know your child's school, informing yourself, attending meetings, is also very rewarding.

WHY DO WE NEED PARENT GOVERNORS?

Schools do not exist in isolation from their communities. They profit from the knowledge and experience which you, as parents, can offer. Schools value the constructive support, influence and information which an enthusiastic governing board can provide.

WHAT IS A SCHOOL GOVERNING BOARD?

All Oldham schools have a governing board made up of a number of governors from a minimum of nine to a maximum of twenty. Although governors' responsibilities have changed over the past few years, their basic role is to help run schools in the interest of the community they serve.

WHO ARE THE GOVERNORS ON THE SCHOOL GOVERNING BODY?

The governing board includes:

- Local Authority governors – appointed by the Council;
- Parent governors – parents with children at the school, elected by other parents;
- Staff governors – teaching or support staff at the school, elected by staff and including the Headteacher
- Community governors – people from the local community chosen by the other governors.

WHAT DOES THE GOVERNING BOARD DO?

Governors take part in:

- supporting the work of the school;
- being a critical friend to senior leadership by offering challenge and support
- appointing senior staff;
- setting targets;
- setting standards of behaviour;
- deciding how money is spent;
- preparing an annual report on their work and presenting it to parents; and
- advising the Council about the school or the education service generally.
- meeting Ofsted Inspectors

WHAT COMMITMENT DO PARENT GOVERNORS GIVE?

Normally parent governors serve on a governing board for up to four years, and many continue to serve following re-appointment or re-election.

Governing boards have to meet at least once a term. Many governors meet more often to conduct their business, serving as members of working parties or committees.

Governors sometimes need to be available during school hours to visit the school, to talk to children and staff, and to take part in selecting staff. School governors are covered by the provisions of the Employment Protection Act requiring employers to grant employees reasonable (unpaid) time off for public duties.

All the work is voluntary.

HOW DOES OLDHAM COUNCIL HELP SCHOOL GOVERNORS?

The Local Authority has a comprehensive system of support, information and training, all of which is designed to assist governors to be more effective.

HOW CAN I BECOME A PARENT GOVERNOR?

If you are a parent of a school child, you can stand in an election to become a parent governor at your child's school.

You can contact the Headteacher and make them aware that you would like to be considered to become a governor.
